The Willetton Stadium and the Jets Basketball Club have codes of conduct for all stakeholders including coaches. Please make yourself familiar with the codes as they apply to you as a coach.

- I will remember that players participate for pleasure and winning is only part of the fun
- I will never ridicule or yell at players for making a mistake or not winning
- I will be reasonable in my demands on players' time, energy and enthusiasm
- I will operate within the rules and spirit of the game and teach my players to do the same
- I will ensure that the time players spend with me is a positive experience. All players are deserving of equal attention and opportunities
- I will avoid overplaying the talented players and understand that average players need and deserve playing time
- I will not use bad language nor will I harass players, officials, spectators or other coaches
- I will ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players
- I will display control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport including opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, parents and spectators. I will encourage my players to do the same
- I will show concern and caution toward sick and injured players and follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition
- I will obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young players
- I will not arrive at games, training or club functions intoxicated or drink alcohol at junior events
- I will not allow the unlawful supply of alcohol at training, games or club facilities
- I will familiarise myself with and promote the club's Healthy Club policy

I agree to abide by this code of conduct and to be subject to the rules and policies of the club/association.
